ProcedureFirst Choice:

There are a total of 18 sponsorship packages available, categorized as follows: 4 Headline sponsorships, 10 Support sponsorships, 2 Welcome Dinner sponsorships and 2 Gala Dinner Sponsorships. In the table provided, please indicate your first choice by selecting the relevant box.

Second Choice(s):

In the event that your first choice is already taken, and you are open to considering other sponsorship packages, kindly mark your second choice(s) by ticking the relevant box(es). It is important to note that obtaining more than one sponsorship package is not possible.

Over-Subscription:

In the case of over-subscription, determined at the close of applications on Friday, 21 November 2025, INREV will allocate sponsorships through a random draw (lottery). Initially, the lottery will include only companies who have selected a specific package as their first choice. If there are insufficient first choices for a particular package, companies with that package as a second choice may be added to the lottery. Unsuccessful applications will be voided.

Example:

Let's consider a scenario where the Headline Sponsorship category is oversubscribed, and there are more companies selecting it as their first choice than there are available slots. In this case, a lottery will be conducted exclusively among those first-choice companies. However, suppose there are only 8 Support Sponsor applications in total. After completing the lottery for the Headline Sponsorship, if there are still open slots, companies with Support Sponsorship as their second choice will be included in the lottery for the support sponsorship.

Under-Subscription:

Should there be under-subscription by the closing date of applications on Friday, 21 November 2025, the application period will remain open until all sponsorships are filled. Sponsorships will be granted in the order applications are received.

This procedure ensures a fair and transparent process for sponsor selection, maximizing opportunities for interested companies and maintaining equity in the allocation of sponsorships.

The undersigned hereby declares that they agree to the terms & conditions applicable to this agreement.
